

SVIE Program

Skykomish Valley Indian Education is a federally funded program founded in Monroe Public Schools in 1980. With a focus of coordinating academic support and cultural activities, the program now serves students of Native American/Alaska Native descent, preschool through high school enrolled in any Monroe, Snohomish and Sultan public school or program. The SVIE 13th Annual Traditional Pow Wow, to which the public is invited, will be held this spring on Saturday, May 27, 2017 at the Monroe High School Commons.

For more information and to learn about current events, visit our program's Monroe Public School website or contact the program's Family Liaison-Coordinator, Mars Miller. She may be reached at the Monroe Public School's Wagner Center 360-804-3353 or millerm@monroe.wednet.edu. If you are new to the program be sure to ask for a registration form.
